

linux crossword (designed by:X, the awesome!)

Across

3. The name of the Linux mascot – A Penguin.
6. Installing an application from it's source code. Another name for this word is build.
7. The superuser account on all Linux systems
8. A package that a package depends upon to work
9. It's like a "Guardian Angel" program, that, when enabled, will always be runnin' in the background, as long as the computer is on.
10. The first name of your professor who designed this crossword exercise and who is very awesome

Down

1. A short form of "Distribution", it is a set of programs combined with the Linux kernel which together creates an Operating System.
2. It is one of the few available desktop environment for Linux. It is the default desktop on the popular Ubuntu distribution,
4. The core, or the brain of a Linux operating system
5. the term for a Folder in Unix/Linux/ * nix-type systems